James Robert Bitter is Professor of Couple and Family Counselling at East Tennessee State University.

He is a Diplomate in Adlerian Psychology and a former editor of the Journal of Individual Psychology.

Together with Oscar Christensen, Clair Hawes and Bill Nicoll, he is a founding faculty member of the Adlerian Training Institute (ATI) in Port St. Lucie, Florida.

Jim has trained and worked with Virginia Satir, he studied with Gestalt therapists, Erv and Miriam Polster, as well as Michael White, one of the founders of Narrative Therapy.

Jim is the author of several books:

- The Theory and Practice of Family Therapy and Counselling
- Adlerian Group Counselling and Therapy: Step-by-Step (with Manford Sonstegard and Peggy Pelonis)
- Contributions to Adlerian Psychology (a compilation of his articles over 35 years)

Jim's current work includes an effort to articulate the relationship of Adlerian Psychology to Narrative Therapy, and his continuing work in the practice of Adlerian Couples and Family Counselling.
