Keeping the Joy in Marriage

Adlerian Tools for Couples and Those Who Work With Couples

Inspired by the success of the Positive Discipline Tool Cards for parents and feedback of their applicability to adult relationships, Jane Nelsen and Mary Nelsen Tamborski have adapted the tools and concepts for Couples and have developed the Keeping The Joy in Marriage Tool Cards and Couple Workbook. Jane will be sharing this work with ONSAP via this teleconference.

Prior to the teleconference, you will receive the Keeping the Joy In Marriage eWorkbook with 40 tools and expanded activities to try out in your relationships and with your clients. Please find your favorite cartoon and be prepared to share what it meant to you. Also, try at least one tool card in any relationship and be prepared to share how it worked as a "Tool Card in Action" for you.

By attending the teleconference, you will gain:

- A practical look at Adlerian tools for couples and ideas for application with your clients.
- Tools and Activities to use in your own relationships and with your couple clients.
- A dynamic opportunity to develop a deeper understanding of these tools and concepts for couple work through dialogue with Jane and fellow Adlerians.

Dr. Jane Nelsen

is a California licensed Marriage and Family Therapist, Adlerian Diplomat, and author or co-author of 20 books, including the Positive Discipline series, Raising Self-Reliant Children in a Self-Indulgent World, Serenity, Positive Discipline Tool Cards, and Keeping the Joy in Marriage Tool Cards and eBook. She earned her Ed.D. from the University of San Francisco, but her formal training has been secondary to her hands-on training as the mother of seven and grandmother of 22, and great grandmother of 5. She now shares this wealth of knowledge and experience as a popular keynote speaker and workshop leader throughout the country—and as a popular presenter at NASAP conferences.
